Mission of the Month: Church Army

Harvest Parade Service: The gifts of non-perishable food & toiletries which have been given today will be distributed to the Roberts Centre and All Saints Hostel. Thank you all.

Prayer for our Nation: Tomorrow Monday 23rd September 2-3pm at the Church of the Good Shepherd Crookhorn. Come and join others praying at this critical time. More information from Pauline Letters.

The 6.00 Service 'Refuel' returns next Sunday 29th September providing the opportunity for a quiet, reflective time. Come along and take the chance to let go, be still and refuel the spirit ready for whatever will come next.

The Big Question Box has arrived at the back of Church. It will be there until 27th October. It's the opportunity you have always wanted, to ask questions (anonymously) about The Bible, Jesus, being a Christian or something that arises out of the sermon. Further info is next to the Box (or ask Sandra Morgan).

Christ Church Advent Fayre 2019:

Saturday 30th November 12 md - 3.30 pm, planning is already underway; please put the date in your diary and think about how you can help.

²⁶ Jesus answered them, 'Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. ²⁷ Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal.'
²⁸ Then they said to him, 'What must we do to perform the works of God?' ²⁹ Jesus answered them, 'This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.'
³⁰ So they said to him, 'What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing?' ³¹ Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, "He gave them bread from heaven to eat."
³² Then Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. ³³ For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.'
³⁴ They said to him, 'Sir, give us this bread always.'
³⁵ Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.'

*This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.*

POST COMMUNION

Lord of the harvest, with joy we have offered thanksgiving for your love in creation and have shared in the bread and the wine of the kingdom: by your grace plant within us a reverence for all that you give us and make us generous and wise stewards of the good things we enjoy; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY (St John's)

COLLECT

Almighty God, whose only Son has opened for us a new and living way into your presence:
give us pure hearts and steadfast wills to worship you in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

NEW TESTAMENT READING: 1 Timothy 2.1–7

¹ First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings should be made for everyone, ² for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. ³ This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, ⁴ who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. ⁵ For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, ⁶ who gave himself a ransom for all—this was attested at the right time. ⁷ For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING: Luke 16.1–13

*Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
Glory to you, O Lord.*

¹ Then Jesus said to the disciples, 'There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. ² So he summoned him and said to him, "What is this that I hear about you? Give me an account of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.”³ Then the manager said to himself, “What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg.”⁴ I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.”⁵ So, summoning his master’s debtors one by one, he asked the first, “How much do you owe my master?”⁶ He answered, “A hundred jugs of olive oil.” He said to him, “Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.”⁷ Then he asked another, “And how much do you owe?” He replied, “A hundred containers of wheat.” He said to him, “Take your bill and make it eighty.”⁸ And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light.⁹ And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.¹⁰ ‘Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much.’¹¹ If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches?¹² And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own?¹³ No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.’

*This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.*

POST COMMUNION

Lord God, the source of truth and love, keep us faithful to the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, united in prayer and the breaking of bread, and one in joy and simplicity of heart, in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HARVEST (Christ Church)

COLLECT

Eternal God, you crown the year with your goodness and you give us the fruits of the earth in their season: grant that we may use them to your glory, for the relief of those in need and for our own well-being; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

FIRST READING: Psalm 100

¹ O be joyful in the Lord, all the earth; serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song. ² Know that the Lord is God; it is he that has made us and we are his; we are his people and the sheep of his pasture. ³ Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and bless his name. ⁴ For the Lord is gracious; his steadfast love is everlasting, and his faithfulness endures from generation to generation.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING: John 6:25–35

*Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John. Glory to you, O Lord

²⁵ When they found him on the other side of the lake, they said to him, ‘Rabbi, when did you come here?’
